PLANS MADE FOR LITTLE LEAGUE CANDY SALE IN BETHEL, SEPT. 1

Plans for a "direct sale" house to house, candy sale are being made in town, Thursday, Sept. 1, for the benefit of the Bethel Little League. The boys enrolled in the four teams which played this summer will, again, be asked to participate in the drive which helps to keep the boys supplied with equipment, insurance.

Sam Timberlake is chairman of the finance drive, and plans to have the boys sent out with an extra companion to sell boxed candy to householders. The teams will meet at the Little League field, starting at 5:30 p. m. for their assignments.

Plan now to put aside a dollar for this worthwhile youth activity in our town. It is not too early for interested men in town to plan to set aside some time for next summer to enable the teams to be formed.

Please note, boys who have been on any of the teams this season are invited to be at the Little League field at 10 a. m. Saturday, August 27 to have pictures taken. If enough from each team appear, separate team pictures will be taken. Call around your squad to get a good contact.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

This is the time of year that the damage caused by Dutch Elm disease shows up. Trees that should be covered with leaves have either lost their leaves or the leaves have turned yellow. Eighty public elm trees were removed last year. Public trees are those that shade the street. There are a lot of public elm trees that will have to be removed this year.

The tree committee has marked most of the trees in town. I believe they expect to finish marking them within the next week or two. When the marking is completed, the tree committee will have to decide how the available funds can be spent to the best advantage of the town. While on the elm tree subject, I would like to urge everyone with diseased elm trees on their property to have the trees removed. Most of the trees on the sidewalks and behind houses are not very hard to cut. The problems of buildings and wires are not present. Diseased elm trees are the breeding place of more elm disease. Everyone benefits when the bad trees are taken down. I will try to keep you posted on the developments of the tree program from now on.

I stated a while ago that tax payments the first week after the bills were mailed were over $17,000. Total payments made through Friday Aug. 10, were $33,000.00. That is about 125% of the total tax commitment. The total payments will slow down now but the number of people making partial payments should remain fairly constant.

The deadline of clearing up junkyards and automobile graveyards has passed. Most of the people did a good job getting rid of the junked cars. A few people have made provisions to get an extension of time and they will comply with the law very soon. Some people have not attempted to dispose of their junked cars and these cases will be handled according to the State Statutes.

WINDSHIELDS SMASHED AT BRYANT POND CAR LOT

Windshields in three cars and a truck were smashed by vandals at a used car lot in Bryant Pond Monday evening. The vehicles are owned by Rockley Auto Sales of Portland. Earl Barker, lot manager, is also Bethel police officer.

FINAL REPORT ON 16th BETHEL BAZAAR

Since the preliminary report on Aug. 4th of Mollicket Day held July 30, the collection of $60 toward the Comets Band and several delayed bills principally for the supper have been received, reducing the total net take to $1,309.43 as compared to $1,170.38 last year.

Keith Bowden visited relatives in town over the week end.

HATHAWAY TO BE HONORED BY DEMOCRATS AT RUMFORD, OCT. 22

The Oxford County Democratic Committee will sponsor a testimonial dinner on Saturday, Oct. 22, at the Rumford Armory in honor of Congressman William D. Hathaway, Secretary of State Kenneth Curtis and State Senator Elmer Violette. U. S. Senator Edmund S. Muskie will be the principal speaker.

Chairman Severin M. Beliveau of Rumford has appointed the following to serve on the dinner committee: Richard Pratt, Norway; Bud Horton, Albany; Olive Moore, South Paris; Burton MacDonald, West Peru; Joseph Sassi, Rumford; Emile Fraser, Donald O'Leary and Omer Bouthout of Mexico. The Democratic Town Committees of Rumford and Mexico will co-sponsor the dinner with the County Committee.

Figures recently released by the Secretary of State's Office show a 63% increase in Democratic enrollment in Oxford County since 1960. Approximately 2,000 more voters have joined the Democratic Party since 1964 and party leaders predict a much larger increase in enrollment by election time in November.

COUNTY REPUBLICANS HEAR TALK ON ELECTION LAW CHANGES

The Oxford County Republican Committee met Thursday evening at the County Court House at South Paris. Lynwood Ross, Deputy Secretary of the Election Division, Secretary of State's Office, spoke on the election laws and changes which were enacted at the last special session. There were many questions asked by Committee members regarding voting regulations.

County Finance Chairman N. K. Ferguson, Sr., Hanover, reviewed the Republican fund raising program which is now underway throughout Oxford County.

The fall campaign plans and political rallies were discussed and committees appointed to work on campaign projects between now and the November election. It was voted to hold the next County Committee Meeting in West Paris in September. Date and plans for this meeting to be announced at a later date.

Master Andrew Rogers celebrated his fifth birthday with a party at his home Tuesday afternoon. Games were played and cake and ice cream were served. Guests were Mary Packard, Kurt Brown, Roger Smith, Douglas Wilson, Jeff Hastings and Scott Guther.

LOCAL 77 U. F. W. A. WORKERS RECEIVE BACK PAY IN ARBITRATION AWARD

As a result of a long and arduous fight by the members of Local 77 United Fur and Leather Workers of America employed by Elco Furware Company, Locke Mills received $409.00 by arbitrator's decision.

This grievance has been in process for more than a year and has been time consuming and an added expense to both the Company and the Union. After receiving the decision dated July 7, 1966, the Union's Grievance Committee has worked continuously to insure that the terms of the decision were met.

The committee had full support of the membership who participated in a special meeting and state vote which was practically unanimous.

Since Local 77 has been in existence there have been three arbitration cases. All three awards have been in favor of the Union, according to Keith Ring, Local President.

"LOITERING" ORDINANCE APPROVED AT MONDAY MEETING

Voting by secret ballot, 2nd Bethel voters decided by a 129 to 79 vote to approve the so-called "loitering" ordinance at a special town meeting at Odeon Hall on Monday evening.

The ordinance, acted upon as article four of the warrant for the meeting, is designed to prohibit standing or loitering by person or persons or group of persons, on streets, sidewalks, public ways, squares, alleys, or parks, on foot or in a motor vehicle, or in an entrance to public building after being requested to move by a duly authorized officer.

Prior to the voting on the article a lengthy discussion of its intention and possible repercussions was held. Among the speakers were Rev. Donald Hess, Maurice Brooks, Henry Swan, Alton Howe, Rodney Hanson, Fr. Charles Nelson, Mrs. Phyllis Buck, Harold Rich, Larry Charney, John Greenleaf, Mrs. Julia Brown, Dan Chretien and Donald James. Henry Hastings, moderator explained the advantages and procedure of voting by secret ballot.

By a standing vote of 83 "yes" and 92 "no" the proposed ordinance for a curfew for those under the age of 17 years was defeated. Prior to the vote Rev. Donald Hess, Dan James, Warren Blake, Maurice Brooks, Fr. Charles Nelson, Mrs. Arlene Morrill, Alton Howe, Henry Swan and others expressed opinions on the proposal.

The article to permit the borrowing of $15,000 for the purchase of a four wheel drive truck and a snow plow was passed with little discussion following an explanation by Town Manager Michael Houlahan.

A transfer from surplus of $1,000 to the police account was approved following comments by the town manager, Henry Roberts, and Ken Hanson questioned the necessity and authorization for some of the increased expenditures in this account.

MONDAY NIGHT FIRE TARTER UNOCCUPIED ALBANY DWELLING

For And About Teenagers

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I have a problem. Let's call him Al. He is a very important person in our community and church. I am a teenager and he is a great deal older than I am. He flirts with me constantly and makes it very embarrassing for me in front of my friends and my steady boyfriend. How should I discourage him and make him leave me alone? He is always putting his arms around me and squeezing me in public. He is ruining my reputation."

OUR REPLY: Al's intentions may be nothing more than friendliness and he may be completely unaware that he is embarrassing anyone. He should be told, in a nice way. Surely there is some older person you can ask to politely slip him the word.

In the meantime, make it a point to stand more than an arm's length away. Should you meet him at some church or social function, when he rushes at you, reach out and shake hands with him before he has the chance to get within squeezing range.

If you have no one to intercede for you, then, you, yourself can tell him that you are being embarrassed. Do it politely and, if he is a gentleman, he will understand and you should have no further problem.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to: FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, COMMUNITY AND SUBURBAN PRESS SERVICE, FRANKFORT, KY.

"FOOL'S PARADISE" DOOM FAULTED BY NATIONAL IND. BUSINESS FEDERATION

There appears to be a growing concern among the nation's 4,700-600 independent business enterprises that any expansion of the so-called welfare programs at this time is somewhat akin to "living in a fool's paradise."

Presumably, a boom aided by extensive military operations such as now taking place in Vietnam, can absorb a lot of programs and schemes that perhaps would not be economically workable in normal times. But the question is asked with greater frequency, "What happens when and if there is peace?"

But even the assumption that Vietnam can keep the economy in high gear appears to be somewhat fallacious in view of the data compiled over the past two years by continuous year-long field surveys conducted by the National Federation of Independent Business.

The surveys are confined to the independent business community currently employing over 10,000,000, or roughly 40 per cent of the entire working force. Two years ago, independent business was expanding to provide new jobs at the annual rate of approximately 700,000. While the current 1966 survey with some 2000 responses through April indicates there has been no slackening in the expansion rate. The creation of new jobs, after deducting of jobs eliminated, is estimated at the annual rate of approximately 600,000.

The 1966 survey is now showing that even these independent enterprises have been expanded since a year ago, only 20 per cent report they have been able to maintain the same level of employment. Among the balance jobs have been eliminated at an average rate of 20 employees per firm.

Among the firms which have not expanded since a year ago, only 20 per cent report they have been able to maintain the same level of employment. Among the balance jobs have been eliminated at an average rate of 20 employees per firm.

The chief reason for the loss of jobs appears to be increased wage and fringe costs brought about by legislation enacted last year. In fact 4 per cent of the entire 1965-1966 returns stated that this was the reason for dropping employees, but this relatively small percentage also accounted for 20 per cent of the job losses.

The increase chiefly with wages and fringe costs brought about by legislation enacted last year. In fact 4 per cent of the entire 1965-1966 returns stated that this was the reason for dropping employees, but this relatively small percentage also accounted for 20 per cent of the job losses.

Presumably the manufacturers who are not concerned with high or general costs and who are engaged in war work have the means of getting their costs added.

costs back to the government. However, this raises the question as to just how healthy is the economy in the event that peace should be arranged in Vietnam, and is not followed by other warfare.

Apparently, a large share of the independent business proprietors not primarily benefitting from the war conditions are finding the current payroll tax and wage rates impossible to live with on a previous scale of employment. If war orders are reduced, the question then becomes how will those benefitting from Vietnam be able to adjust to meet the competition of a peacetime economy.

These questions become even more significant when it is realized there are many moves in Washington to further increase payroll costs such as increased social security taxes, greater unemployment compensation taxes, and an increase in the minimum wage law.

Commenting on the situation, Federation president C. Wilson Hender says: "Any good farmer knows the cream check will be bigger during the spring months of high pastureage than during the lean feeding months of midwinter. It would also seem logical that any moves to further increase payroll costs should be postponed until there is a period of peace to see just how much of a burden a normal peacetime economy can stand up under. It appears that even under war conditions large segments of business cannot stand up under the present burden. If this is true, a larger burden placed on the economy now would create a peacetime of chaotic peace. The business test at present is that there apparently is no valid defense planning for peace and we should anticipate that peace is expected at some time."

BERRY - TWITCHELL

The Universalist Church of Bryant Pond was the scene of a lovely wedding, Saturday afternoon, August 13, when Miss Carol Ann Twitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Twitchell, became the bride of Richard Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Berry, Mechanic Falls.

The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert C. Salter, pastor of the Westbrook Universalist Church. Mrs. Abner H. Mann furnished the traditional wedding music on the organ with Merle Ring soloist.

The church was decorated with garden flowers, with gladioli and evergreen predominating. Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white tulle with train, with Watteau neckline and long sleeves ending with bridal points on the hands. Her shoulder length veil of English illusion fell from a crown of sequins and drop pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of gladioli, carnations and asters.
